Table of Contents

1. Introduction

Overview SCOOBY-DOO! & KRYPTO, TOO! ($SDKT) is a community-driven meme coin project that blends the beloved characters of Scooby-Doo and Krypto with the innovation of blockchain technology. Built on the Solana blockchain for its high speed and low transaction costs, $SDKT is designed to offer a unique, engaging, and rewarding experience for our community members.

2. Vision and Mission

Vision Our vision is to create a sustainable, fun, and inclusive ecosystem where the community can enjoy both financial rewards and practical utility from $SDKT. We aim to foster a vibrant community around our token, leveraging the shared love for Scooby-Doo and Krypto to drive engagement and adoption.

Mission our mission is to build a platform that empowers our community, allowing members to actively participate in shaping the project's future. Through the popularity of Scooby-Doo and Krypto, we seek to create a dynamic environment where every community member can contribute to and benefit from the growth of $SDKT.

3. Tokenomics

Total Supply 500,000,000 (500 Million) $SDKT Distribution Breakdown

1. Public Sale: - Allocation: 30% (150,000,000 $SDKT) - Details: These tokens will be made available for purchase by the community during the token launch event, ensuring broad participation and equal opportunity for everyone involved.

2. Liquidity Pool: - Allocation: 45% (225,000,000 $SDKT) - Details: Reserved to ensure robust liquidity on exchanges, promoting stable trading conditions and minimizing slippage. This allocation supports a healthy market environment and fosters confidence within the community.

 3. Development Fund: - Allocation: 10% (50,000,000 $SDKT) - Details: Allocated to fund ongoing development, technical upgrades, and project improvements. This ensures the continuous evolution of the project, driven by community input and needs.

4. Marketing and Partnerships: - Allocation: 5% (25,000,000 $SDKT) - Details: Dedicated to marketing campaigns, partnership development, and community engagement activities, helping to grow the project's reach and the involvement of our community members.

5. Team and Advisors: - Allocation: 10% (50,000,000 $SDKT) - Details: Compensation for the core team and advisors who are dedicated to driving the project's success. These tokens will be immediately liquid, rewarding those who are committed to the project's community-focused vision. Key Highlights - No Private Sale: All tokens are distributed transparently with no private sale, ensuring equal opportunity for all participants and preventing early investor advantage. - No Vesting Period: Tokens are fully liquid upon distribution, providing immediate access and usability to community members. This policy ensures that everyone has the same level of access to their investments. - Airdrops: Airdrops will be distributed to our community members as a reward for their efforts, contributions, and engagement. This strategy reinforces the value of active participation and helps to grow and strengthen our community.

Exchange Listings $SDKT will be listed on the Solana blockchain, providing robust trading capabilities and accessibility for users. This ensures that the token is easily tradable and available to the entire community.
